The Seating Bowl Map is based upon digital renderings of the new Yankee Stadium, which is still under construction. As such, the approximate seating locations depicted in the Seating Bowl Map are not drawn to scale and do not show precise (but reflect the general) seating locations. Actual viewing ability and lines of sight in the new Yankee Stadium may be impacted as a result of game and/or event conditions, protective devices (including, but not limited to, railings), the manner of play, the field configuration, the location of fixed and electronic (computerized) signage, cameramen (e.g., television and film), photographers, production personnel and their equipment, sound equipment, cables, stages, on-deck circles, coaches boxes, security personnel, placement of sports participants and their family members (whether or not participating), other fans as well as other similar and dissimilar conditions including, without limitation, the configuration of the seating bowl, aisle seating, seating required by governmental laws, statutes, rules, directions, regulations and ordinances pertaining to fans with disabilities and otherwise.
